

The Arizona Gunslingers Wild West-style shoot-out Saturday, February 18th at 9:00 a.m. on Frontier Street

For 364 days of the year, the Gunslingers mix with polite society as regular business folk, posing as Investment Coordinators, Realtors, Tour Guides and Office Workers. But on one special day every year, they look forward to dusting off their guns, their boots, their cowboy hats and their Old West attitudes to hoot and holler in Wickenburg. Who are the Gunslingers, really?

For two decades, the Arizona Gunslingers have been “shootin’ ‘em up” Saturday morning at Gold Rush Days in front of the Wickenburg Chamber of Commerce.

Always a crowd pleaser, the Arizona Gunslingers raise a ruckus at “High Nine” (9:00 am) and fill Frontier Street with excitement and Wild West entertainment.

Tracing their beginning back to 1981, the Arizona Gunslingers traveled all over the state, from Douglas to Greer, from Apache Junction to Salome and every small town and big city in between.

Although the group “semi-officially retired” in 1995, the members continue to travel from around the state to gather and carry on their tradition of entertaining the early morning crowds gathered to enjoy their show.

Committed more to amusement than authenticity, to good fun more than true tales, the Arizona Gunslingers continue to bring their own unique brand of humor and slightly-skewed view of the old west “Out Wickenburg Way” to Gold Rush Days Saturday, February 18 at 9 am.
